PUBLIC NOTICE

Any parties engaging in transactions with Public Storage, Inc. or its current officers are hereby advised that multiple liens, claims, and demands have been filed and remain unrebutted on the public record. These filings involve substantial amounts and pertain to matters of commercial harm, breach, and conversion of secured property.

All prospective buyers, lenders, investors, and contractual counterparties are strongly cautioned that such claims may constitute encumbrances and may trigger successor liability under applicable law. Due diligence is advised prior to any transaction or contractual engagement.

This notice is issued solely for the purpose of public record and legal notice.
